

ASKS FOR CONFERENCE ON MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

PROPOSITION TO HAVE A UNIFORM LAW IN THE UNITED STATES IS SUBMITTED—COMMITTEES NAMED AT THE SESSION THIS MORNING.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The second day's session of the Triennial Episcopal Convention was preceded by morning prayer, conducted by Bishop Potter of New York, assisted by Dr. Olmstead of Massachusetts. The delegates of the House of Deputies were late in assembling and it was after 10 o'clock before they were called to order by President Lindsey. The journal of yesterday's proceedings was read, the reading of the Deputies' names being omitted.

COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

Secretary Hutchins then read the list of standing committees, after which the president declared resolutions and memorials in order.

Rev. Dr. Hotchkiss of Maryland offered a resolution extending greetings to the Rev. Morgan Dix and regretting that the House was not to have his valuable services as a member and his favorable services as President.

On motion of Dr. Taylor of Illinois, the latter part of the resolution, referring to the presidency, was stricken out.

Dr. Hotchkiss then attempted to withdraw the original resolution but this was ruled out of order and the resolution was adopted.

The appointments of assistant secretaries were confirmed, and several memorials containing personal tributes presented.

AMENDMENTS SUBMITTED.

Dr. Prince of New Mexico offered a memorial from the missionary district of New Mexico, asking that the missionary districts be recognized as integral parts of the American Church with such representation in the convention as may seem just and proper. This was referred to the Committee on Amendments to the constitution.

Several other resolutions offering amendments to the constitution were read and referred.

The acoustics of the church were severely criticised, but a motion to procure another place of meeting was voted down.

NEW RULE MADE.

Dr. Huntington moved that the amendments to the constitution first adopted at the last annual convention be made the order of the day at 12 o'clock.

Dr. Fulton said he had no objection except that the House of Bishops had asked that they confer with them through a joint committee in regard to an order of business.

Dr. Greer heartily seconded Dr. Huntington's resolution and offered as an amendment that the order be subject to any rule that may be brought in by the joint committee on order of business.

The amendment was adopted.

Dr. McConnell brought before the House a memorial from members of the Hawaiian Community in the Hawaiian Islands, asking for action by which their relation to the American Church should be settled. It was referred to the Committee on the Constitution.

CONFERENCE ON DIVORCE.

The question of moving to a new hall or adopting some remedy for the defective acoustics of the church again came up, and after considerable discussion was referred to the local Committee on Arrangements.

The Deputies concurred in the resolution of the House of Bishops yesterday.

HIGH CHURCH IS OPPOSED.

Full Dress Parade of the Ritualists and the Evangelicals.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Church Congress at Brighton today witnessed a full dress parade of the ritualists and evangelicals, with their respective captains, says the Tribune's London representative.

The lines were formed on the question of the authority of the English Church, Lord Halifax pleaded for the revival and exercise of true ecclesiastical authority in the interpretation of Catholic doctrine, and was closely followed by the Rev. Mr. Leighton Pullman.

These extreme high church views were opposed by Prebendary Vaux, who contended that no ceremonies introduced

TRUCKS MOVE AGAIN IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The industrial inactivity which has prevailed in this city for so many months on account of the labor troubles has been dispelled and today the manufacturing and wholesale districts are assuming their normal condition. The agreement entered into by the Employers' Association and the strikers late yesterday afternoon will be followed by a general resumption of business throughout the State.

Crops will commence to move, the shipping interests will again become active and the manufacturers will take up the thread of their business where it was broken off at the outset of the strike.

In this city trucks are moving in ever-increasing numbers, unaccompanied by the special police guard sworn in to protect the drivers who took the places of strikers. It is expected that before another fortnight has passed that the business of the State will have recovered in a great measure from the tie-up caused by the strike.

MANY WILL LOSE PLACES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—There were hundreds of men who regarded the announcement as a guaranty that they could return to work today, but of course many of these have been disappointed.

OLD MAN TAKES HIS LIFE AT BERKELEY.

LORIN, Oct. 3.—After dressing in his best attire, Andrew Grossett suicided at his residence, 1627 Fairview street, sometime last night by drinking carbolic acid. The remains of the old gentleman, who was 68 years of age, and a native of France, were not discovered until six o'clock this morning.

Last night the old man bade his wife and daughter good night and was seemingly in the best of spirits. He slept alone but an empty glass of carbolic acid which stood beside his couch told the tale.

Just about a year ago the deceased made an attempt upon his life. At that time he gashed his throat with a razor. The family said nothing about the affair, however, and it was given out that the would-be suicide was suffering from throat trouble.

Miss Louise Grossett, the deceased's daughter, is a singer of note and a prominent member of the Park Congregational Church.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—2:33 p. m.—The committee has decided to race again tomorrow.

STORY OF THE RACE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—It looked early this morning as if Sir Thomas Lipton's wish for a strong off-shore breeze and a smooth sea had been granted, for at 8 o'clock a grand 24-knot breeze was blowing straight out of the northwest and the seas had decreased so that there was scarcely any surf along the Jersey shore. Coasters from the harbor ran rapidly down the Jersey shore and some of the fast steamers going southerly had the smoke from their stacks blown far out ahead of them. One or two pilot boats on their stations inside Sandy Hook lightship were well reefed down and even then seemed to have considerable head. But the sea was beautifully smooth, there being scarcely more than a ripple breaking on the shore while the vessels out to sea stood steadily along with very little roll.

IDEAL WEATHER.

The condition of wind and water in shore was ideal and promised a rare day's racing between the two big yachts.

Sir Thomas Lipton was out early and rubbed his hands with glee when he came on deck of the Erin.

"This is what we want," he said. "If it holds we will have a good race. The Shamrock should do well today. True, Mr. Morgan says the Columbia wants a wind, but so do we. If the wind keeps up we will have a fair test of the two boats."

And at that hour it looked as if his desire for "six inches of water on the Shamrock's lee rail" was to be fulfilled.

The captains and crews of both yachts breakfasted early and soon after 7 o'clock they were on board their respective boats. The Columbia's staysail and jib were sent up in stops. Fifteen minutes later the Shamrock's were sent up, and the crews of both yachts got out some No. 2 club topsails.

"We shall have a good breeze all day," said Captain Sycamore, "and this will be more like Shamrock weather."

When asked what he thought of the weather, Captain Barr said: "This is good. I think we will sail a fast race today."

COLUMBIA TAKES LINE.

The Columbia took a line from her tug at ten minutes to 9 o'clock and started out of the Horseshoe, the Shamrock following her five minutes later. The Columbia rounded the Hook under tow and started for the line, not attempting to put up her main-sail, although it was an easy run down before the wind. The Shamrock also went around under tow.

When the tug Luckenbach and Navigator, two of the committee boats, reached the Hook at 9:25, the wind was still holding fresh and steady, the official gauge at Sandy Hook giving the velocity as 21 knots an hour.

The racers were well out to the lightship before the vanguard of the great excursion fleet started down through the Narrows, closely followed by a picturesque swarm of white yachts and miscellaneous craft.

When the steamer Victor arrived at the Hook with the guests of Sir Thomas Lipton, they had an exciting time in being transferred in small launches from the steamer to the yacht Erin. The sea was choppy and the small boats tossed about in a threatening manner.

Soon after 10 o'clock both Columbia and Shamrock hoisted their main-sails and Columbia set her club topsail. By this

MINERS SAY THEY WILL STRIKE

Coal Companies Are Now Expecting a Great Deal of Trouble.

SCRANTON, Pa., Oct. 3.—A strike of the men employed in all the mines of the New York and Scranton Coal Company, controlled by the New York, Ontario and Western Railroad, is threatened today.

If such results, 6,000 employees will be made idle in the workings of that company which are located in Scranton and upper Lackawanna Valley.

The trouble arises over General Superintendent Breiden shutting down the Pine Brook shaft on Tuesday, locking out 700 men, because they struck that morning against working with men who could not show their union cards.

The executive board of District No. 1, United Mine Workers, is in session considering the matter.

VATICAN OFFICIAL ON THE WAY.

Proposes to Run the City of Berlin According to His Ideas.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The Herald says: Mgr. Antonini, one of the influential prelates and officials of the Vatican will arrive here soon, it is expected, by way of Rotterdam.

Just what is the intent of his visit here is not stated.

It is suggested by some that he may bring instructions for the annual meeting of the Archbishops which will be held at Washington on November 13 and 14 and may perhaps arrange the details for the summoning of the proposed plenary council of the Hierarchy.

It is also thought that his visit may have something to do with the selection of a successor to Cardinal Martinelli, as the apostolic delegate to the United States.

LARGE FIRE IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 3.—Leach's storage warehouses at Fifteenth street and Columbia avenue, owned by A. S. Leach & Co., one of the largest establishments of the city, were completely destroyed by fire today. The fire started from an unknown cause in the carpet cleaning department on the second floor of a six story building and the structure was soon a mass of flames. Nothing was saved. A three story building adjoining was also destroyed and falling walls demolished Rogers' music store. Mr. Leach says the loss on his two buildings is $400,000 and the household goods stored in them were worth from $50,000 to $500,000. Rogers' loss is about $100,000. Surrounding buildings were damaged to the extent of a few thousand dollars. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

COAL STRIKE IS RAPIDLY EXTENDING.

LIEGE, Belgium, Oct. 3.—The coal strike is rapidly extending to all the pits on the left bank of the Meuse and has involved 10,000 strikers.

ADMIRAL SCHLEY WILL TELL THE WHOLE STORY.

WILL GO ON THE WITNESS STAND AND EXPLAIN HIS PART IN THE SANTIAGO CAMPAIGN—FORTY WITNESSES WILL BE CALLED BY DEFENSE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—After the usual preliminary proceedings in the Schley Court of Inquiry today, Lieutenant James J. Doyle, formerly of the flagship Brooklyn, was recalled for the purpose of continuing his testimony.

When the court adjourned yesterday Lieutenant Doyle was under examination by Mr. Rayner and the Court had just decided that the witness should not enter upon a discussion of the blockade of Santiago as it was conducted after the arrival of Commander-in-Chief Sampson.

There was much interest in Lieutenant Doyle's reappearance, as it was expected that the course of his examination would develop the further policy of Admiral Schley's counsel in the case.

HARD WORK.

Both the court and counsel are beginning to show the effects of the arduous duties imposed by the trial. Especially heavy is it upon the attorneys, both for Admiral Schley and for the Navy Department.

Their duties do not cease when the court adjourns in the afternoon, but they extend far into the night, and often they are found at their labors before the breakfast hour next morning.

The trial presents new points to all.

SCHLEY TO TESTIFY.

Judge Advocate Lemly probably will not call more than six or eight witnesses, but Mr. Rayner has almost forty numbers on his list.

He says, however, he does not expect to examine more than half of this number.

Still he will not undertake to name a day for the close of the trial.

He does not expect to call Admiral Schley to the witness stand for some time yet.

Mr. Rayner expects his client to make a complete review of the case and it is probable that the Admiral will be on the stand longer than any other witness.

CAPTAIN SIGSBEE CALLED.

Captain Sigsbee was the first of yesterday's witnesses to appear for the purpose of correcting his testimony.

When he began his statement it was

EMPEROR WILLIAM WILL NOT GIVE IN A DISPUTE.

May Be Coming to Arrange For a Successor to Cardinal Martinelli.

No Money Will Be Paid the Bandidos for the Return of Miss Stone.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says the main difficulties between Emperor William and the representatives of the city of Berlin have been thrown into the background by the dispute regarding the advisability of permitting tram lines to cross Unter den Linden, Berlin's principal and most beautiful thoroughfare.

Most people sympathize with the Kaiser's determination to prevent Unter den Linden being disfigured. The question, however, has now assumed a more serious aspect, since it is learned that certain exalted personages led the Berlin magistrates to believe that the Kaiser approved their scheme and the municipality bought the tramway systems from Herren Siemens and Halske for 10,000,000 marks ($2,380,000).

The incident is regarded as another proof of the lack of regular personal intercourse between Emperor William and his Minister. It is said that the Emperor has given orders that the plans for every architectural project in Berlin are to be submitted to him. Even the journals most strongly favoring the Government dissent from this decision.

VALUABLE ASSETS TO AN ESTATE.

Increasing Popularity of Life Insurance as an Investment and Protection.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—The tendency of business men to protect their estates by policies of life insurance is becoming as general as to protect their buildings by policies of fire insurance. Since Mr. George W. Vanderbilt of New York and Mr. Frank Peavey of Minneapolis each took policies for $1,000,000 (one million dollars) a few years since in the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, there has been no equally large sum written on one individual.

Those remain the record figures for the world, but policies of $50,000 and $100,000 and even $200,000 are so frequent as to cause little comment, and even when Mr. Sidney A. Witherbee of Detroit took $200,000 in five per cent gold bond insurance from the Mutual Life early in this year it passed almost as a matter of course.

It is significant that when a business man's estate is settled these days, life insurance is generally found to be a very important part of it, often all there is of it.

Life insurance in one of the great companies yields a good rate of interest as an investment apart from the protection it affords.

DROPPED DEAD OF HEART DISEASE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 2.—Henry Adams a rancher living near Whittier, dropped dead from heart disease this morning while on his way to Los Angeles. His horse was frightened by the barking of a small dog and Adams had great difficulty in restraining them. The exertion exhausted him and gave the reins to his 15-year-old daughter, who accompanied him, and he fell to the ground to rest. Immediately afterwards he collapsed and died. He has been in poor health for some time and his death is attributed to the excitement and exertion of controlling his frightened team.

The cause of death is not stated, but it was probably Bright's Disease, from which he had long been a sufferer.

MISS ADAMS TELLS STORY OF FATHER'S DOWNFALL

SAYS THAT THE UNFROCKED MINISTER HAS LONG BEEN A VICTIM OF DRINK — WAS TURNED OUT OF CHURCHES IN THE EAST.

Miss Agnes S. Adams resumed the witness stand today in the trial of her father, Charles G. Adams, charged with the murder of Dr. J. G. Jessup at Berkeley last June.

Miss Adams is placed in the peculiar position of being the principal witness for both the defense and prosecution, but she bears the strain with remarkable fortitude.

The examination of the defendant's daughter by Attorneys Church and Snook today was in development of the theory of insanity as a cause for the tragedy.

The witness was obliged to go into intimate details of her father's discreditable career, and to disclose matters of the most private and distressing character.

Throughout her daughter's recital of his mispent life, Adams covered his face with his hands.

According to Miss Adams' story, her father first became addicted to the excessive use of liquor in 1885, while rector of the Southport, Conn., Trinity Church.

"A great change came over my father at this time," testified Miss Adams. "Before this he was kind and never used profane language, but when he began to drink he seemed transformed. In 1890 we moved to Mr. Vernon, N. Y., where my father was in charge of a church, and in 1891 we again moved, this time to New York City, where my father was made rector of St. Mark's Memorial chapel.

"During all these years he had been drinking, and the habit seemed to grow upon him as the years wore on. In 1896 we went to Cincinnati, where my mother died.

"My father grew worse than ever after we reached Cincinnati. He had several attacks of delirium tremens there.

"He would imagine that little devils were sitting upon the picture frames and would scream as though terribly frightened.

The portrait of Bishop Williams hung in the room and my father would say that the portrait of the Bishop was a likeness of the devil. Bishop Williams was at the time the presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, as well as of the State of Connecticut.

"While in Cincinnati my father went to a sanatorium, after which he abstained from drink for a time. Soon his craving returned to him, however, and he finally left the city on account of his inability to stop drinking.

Miss Adams then told of her father's coming to California, and his taking charge of the Episcopal Church at Hanford.

"There was no improvement in his condition after we reached Hanford," she continued. "He became moody and disconnected in his speech. His sleep was broken and he would cry out during the night.

"In December, 1898, he attacked a colored man who was chopping some tree branches in front of the rectory, although the man was obeying orders.

"We heard the sound of chopping in the evening, and my father rushed at the man with a revolver. The colored man was very angry, but I finally persuaded him to go away.

"On another occasion in Hanford my father rushed from the house after a man who had been drinking and was in the street.

"He was terribly excited and said that some one had been peering at him through the windows.

"His eyes were glassy and his hair stood on end. After he re-entered the house he collapsed and trembled like a leaf.

Miss Adams will occupy the witness stand throughout the day and possibly tomorrow.

YACHT RACE.

time the wind had hauled a little more to the north-northwest and while still blowing steadily, had apparently decreased in velocity, though not enough to cause any apprehension.

SHAMROCK ON DECK.

On both boats every sail seemed to be set to perfection, and as the wind had slackened a little both captains sent up their largest club top-sails. The Shamrock was first to drop her top, at half past 40 she broke out her jib and, swinging away on the port tack, were around with a grand heel on. The Columbia soon followed suit, and both yachts behaved magnificently in the splendid breeze. The excursion fleet had reached the line by this time, and the guard-boats began to line them up in order to give the yachts plenty of room for the start. The Shamrock was standing off and on around the lights, while the Columbia was near a mile away, heading toward the starting line. She came rapidly up, however, and by 1:45, when the preparatory gun was fired, was maneuvering back of the line.

THE COURSE GIVEN.

On the committee boat signals had been set for a triangular course, first leg east half south, second leg southwest half south, third leg north northwest.

When the warning gun was fired at 1:55 both yachts were headed into the wind a little to eastward of the judges' boat.

The course indicated by the committee made the first leg a rather close reach on the port tack, the second a broader reach and the third leg a dead beat to the finish.

The starting gun was fired on the dot and it was apparent that the advantage lay entirely with the British skipper. Just before the start he sent the Shamrock swinging around the committee boat, cutting in between that and the Columbia. The latter, being under the Shamrock's lee, apparently decided not to cross in that position, but went around again.

Holding tight to his advantage when the gun was fired, Captain Symmore sent Shamrock across the line almost before the stiff wind could sweep the powder smoke away, the Columbia being considerably behind.

CROSSING THE LINE.

After crossing both yachts went on a close reach for the first mark, fairly tearing through the water and throwing great fountains of spray from under their bows.

The official time of crossing the line was: Shamrock—11:00:13. Columbia—11:01:47.

It was a magnificent and blood-stirring race to the first mark. The pace was terrific and it was impossible to determine when half the first leg had been sailed, whether or not the Shamrock was maintaining the lead she gained when they crossed the line. Both were carrying the same sails.

Every yard of the canvas piled above the flying hulls of the racers was as hard as a board. The crews were lined under the windward rail, while off to leeward the spray under the bows of the yachts was swept in clouds by the increasing wind.

They lifted the first turn as though the stake boat itself was coming to meet them, the Shamrock still holding her big lead.

Both swept away on the starboard tack, Shamrock leading by about a quarter to a third of a mile.

AN EXCITING RACE.

The second leg of the race lost nothing in exciting interest. The wind held strong and true, and after rounding the mark the racers maintained their terrific speed, making no change in their sails. The excursion fleet had a fight to keep up with the race, being compelled to crowd on a full-head of steam to maintain a position which would keep the flying yachts in view. As in the first leg it was more guess-work at first whether either boat had gained or lost. When about half of the second leg had been covered it seemed, however, as if the American boat had managed to slightly crawl up on her fast sign-tax ordinance.

The new sign-tax ordinance is in effect. The City Treasury has not been very much benefited as during the week only $9 has been paid in by the merchants. License Inspector Newell on whom the burden of collecting the tax rests, announces that he has not encountered any opposition among the merchants or others.

It is stated on good authority that the business-tax which now is in the hands of the Auditing and Finance Committee of the Council, will be allowed to remain there unless unexpected opposition develops against the new sign-tax ordinance.

At 1:57 both yachts went about on the starboard tack and headed for the finish, Columbia having a safe lead of about a quarter of a mile. The race was over then. Nothing could head her.

With every inch of her beautiful sails drawing, the spray flying from under her bow, the great white American yacht crossed the line nearly two minutes ahead of the boat flying the Shamrock.

The official time: Finish—Elapsed. Corro'd Columbia..... 2:15:03 3:13:18 3:12:25 Shamrock..... 2:16:23 3:16:10 3:16:10

It will thus be seen, with the 43 seconds which the Shamrock must allow the Columbia, the latter wins by three minutes and 25 seconds in the thirty mile race.

ARGUMENT IN BREED CASE.

Attorney Knight Making the Points for the Water Company.

Argument in the mandamus suit of the Contra Costa Water Company against City Auditor Breed was resumed this morning before Judge Ellsworth.

Attorney Knight of Counsel for the Water Company presented his argument against the stand taken by the Auditor, and reviewed at some length the points raised by Attorney Guy C. Earl for Breed.

Attorney Knight admitted that the tax placed upon the Water Company was subject to collection prior to 1891, when the Legislature passed an act prohibiting municipalities from taxing industries for the purpose of revenue, but held that the penalty for the failure to pay the tax fell with the passage of this act.

Continuing, he contended that if the court held that the passage of the act did not prevent the enforcement of the penalty, then the case must be tried in the Justice Court, as provided in the Constitution.

In regard to the position taken by the Auditor with regard to the failure of the Contra Costa Water Company to make an oath of the truth of its income, Attorney Knight held that such a requirement was unconstitutional.

"There is no law that compels a corporation to make an oath," said Mr. Knight. "All of the authorities cited by Mr. Earl with regard to the permissibility of a corporation's agent making such an oath, show plainly that such an act is optional with a corporation and not compulsory."

Attorney Knight will conclude his argument this afternoon, when Attorney Nussamer will close the case for the Water Company.

TELLS OF THE FREIGHT TIE-UP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 2.—G. F. Richardson, master of transportation for the Southern Pacific Company, in speaking of the freight congestion, said today:

"Our yards are badly congested, both here and in Oakland, and to such an extent that the switching force and switch engineers can do nothing like a full day's work, and this has resulted in a rapid accumulation of freight, especially during the past week.

"It will take some time to get matters adjusted so that the traffic will flow on in the usual way, even though the strike is settled."

At noon Mr. Richardson said that the report from the freight yards was most encouraging, and he thought by tomorrow there would be a noticeable improvement in the situation.

ASKS CONFERENCE ON MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE.

providing for a joint committee to prepare an order of business for the guidance of the convention.

Dr. Taylor offered a resolution that action be taken looking to conference with other religious bodies of the United States with reference to uniformity of practice relative to the subjects of divorce and marriage. A brief recess was taken to await the report of the Committee on Program.

Several resolutions were introduced and referred to the committee on the prayer book in reference to a change in the title of the prayer book, suggested by the Rev. B. W. Taylor, suggesting the insertion of the words "Holy Catholic Church, according to the use before the words 'Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.'" It was resolved to draw up suitable resolutions regarding the death of the late President, which shall be finally adopted by a rising vote.

In accordance with Dr. Huntington's resolution the amendments to the constitution were then taken up. The first resolution covering the title by vote of Dioceses was unanimously adopted.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Dr. Edgar of New York, moved the adoption of Article I, consisting of six sections and addressed to the House. He said no amendments could be made at this convention. It must be adopted as a whole or rejected. He called attention to the fact that the changes can be made afterwards by amendment through the action of this and a subsequent convention.

Three provisions that the Bishop Senior in connection with the presiding Bishop of the church was the only one referred to as perhaps not satisfactory.

COULD NOT APPROVE.

Judge Prince called attention to the greater difficulty with which amendments can be made if article eleven further on is adopted. Judge Fairbanks of Florida said that the constitution could be amended so as to give the House of Deputies a voice in the choice of the Presiding Bishop of the church. He also objected to giving a single general convention by canon to reduce the number of deputies from the dioceses to the general convention.

Dr. Fiske of Rhode Island found himself unable to give his approval to this article of the constitution. He thought he could better afford to wait another three years than run the risk of making a mistake.

Dr. Sprague of Indiana thought we could afford to take another three years for the consideration of so important a matter.

MADE AN OBJECTION.

Dr. Simms of Connecticut said great care had been taken in the last convention and in the joint committee in the preparation of this constitution and it would be a great waste of time now to reject it.

Rev. B. W. Taylor of Los Angeles urged the adoption of the article under consideration.

Dr. Roberts of New Hampshire called attention to the provision by which the number of Deputies can be changed by canon, to which he strongly objected.

Dr. Fulton thought the provision by which a definite rule prescribing the number is established a great advance in the right direction over the present condition under which the House of Bishops is left entirely free to say by a simple resolution who shall be its Presiding Bishop. A recess was then taken until 3 P. M.

METHODISTS ARE IN SESSION.

The fifty-first session of the Methodist Church South opened in Asbury Church, Fifteenth and Clay streets, this morning. There was quite a large attendance of ministerial delegates and the auditorium contained also a number of interested lay auditors.

Bishop W. W. Duncan, whose home is in South Carolina, but who has charge of the Methodist Church South on the Pacific Coast, presided. The Bishop is venerable in appearance and conducted the services in an informal manner, at times causing the delegates to indulge in moderate laughter by a witty remark, and at others taking a deep interest in the financial condition of the people composing the various churches.

In making his reports some of the ministers spoke of the hardships of farmers in various places, some of whom could not get their grain moved because of the strike, others of whom could not find a market for a superfluous supply of some product, and others, still, whose lands refused to yield crops when planted with a seed which could not fruitfully, even under irrigation.

In all these cases, the Bishop expressed commiseration for the unfortunate agriculturalists.

The following delegates were in attendance:

found that the official stenographer was not present and Admiral Dewey's private secretary, Lieutenant Crawford, was called upon to perform the duty of recorder of the proceedings.

Mr. Doyle stated that he had made another search last night for the dispatch from the Navy Department under the terms of which he sought to connect with the flying squadron off Santiago, and that he had found a private letter which he had written at the time, in which he had said:

"That we sighted the vessels on the 25th we knew nothing positive as to their whereabouts."

CHURCHMEN ARE STILL IN SESSION.

GEN. BULLER MAKES REPLY.

Papers Read at the Meeting Today on Church Federation.

The session of the forty-fifth annual meeting of the General Association of Congregational Churches of California was resumed this morning in the First Congregational Church.

Devotional exercises were led by Rev. M. Luark of Murphy's.

At 9:15 o'clock the annual meeting of the California Home Missionary Society was held. A new constitution for the society was adopted, which provides that the society shall consist of forty-five members, to be appointed by the General Association.

The subject of "Church Federation" was then introduced in a paper which was read by Rev. S. C. Patterson of Petaluma. In this paper Rev. Mr. Patterson, gave a history of the movement.

At the first meeting in Manchester, England, there were 347 persons present, and of these 145 were Congregationalists, three times as many as represented the next largest number of delegates. A resolution was adopted that there should be a union of denominational religions for the purpose of evangelizing people who were then beyond the influence of the church. The move was still in progress and had extended into Scotland, Ireland and Wales. In it were included Congregationalists, Baptists, Free Episcopalians, Friends and Methodists. In this country the Connecticut Bible Society had bound churches together by its work in canvassing from house to house. The Ministerial Union of Philadelphia in 1886 had made a canvass of that city which led to the establishment of an Evangelical Society which had for one of its purposes the unification of the churches. In 1879 in Maine there was organized an inter-denominational society, the purpose of which was to save wasteful expenditures and to cause the cooperation of the denominational churches in the work of extending the gospel into places in which it was unknown. He looked upon these moves as encouraging and said that it argued that the Kingdom of God was at hand. The speaker then mentioned a number of cities in which similar organizations had been formed. There were three State organizations, and these led to the National Federation of Evangelical Churches and Christian Workers of America. At the first convention of the Association a cablegram was sent to the English Federation and the subject of an international federation was suggested. A union should be organized. They should conserve their resources and present an unbroken front to the enemies of Christ.

The moderator then announced the following committee, whose duty was to nominate the forty-five members of the California Home Missionary Society.

Bay Association—Rev. E. D. Hale, San Francisco Association—Rev. G. C. Adams.

Upper Bay—Rev. C. C. Cragin, Sacramento Valley—Thurman Reeve, San Joaquin—Rev. L. M. Waters, Santa Clara—Rev. J. H. Mart, Humboldt—Rev. Wm. Burkett, Mt. St. Helena—Jesse Davis, Sonoma—Rev. F. E. Bingham.

The second paper on "Church Federation" viewed in its practical workings, was read by Rev. J. R. Knodell of Santa Cruz.

The gentleman spoke of the work which is now expended without beneficial result because of the overlapping of sects and churches. Each church, he said, should organize bands of visitors. A house to house canvass should be made. The visits should be made with as little appearance of a canvass as possible. The visits should be made at the same time. Twenty or thirty houses should be assigned to each visitor. Then reports should be made to the Council. The movement would have a beneficial effect. In ten years the movement had spread all over England and Scotland and had come to this country. Crusades had been carried to success against gambling and vice. The movement was a new incarnation of the spirit of God. It had advanced noiselessly like the uprising sun. There was no reason why California should not use this weapon as a means of extending the Kingdom of the church.

Prof. C. S. Nash moved the appointment of a committee of five on church federation to act with a similar committee from other religious denominations, with a view to establishing church federation in this State. The motion was adopted.

Rev. Dr. Moor of Oakland then made a report of the Ministerial Relief Association. The assets of the association were $2,225.71, a net gain of $196. The society had been organized twenty years. The expense became of beneficiaries for the past year was $159.

DEFENDANT WAS HELD TO BE INNOCENT.

A. J. Lynn, the plasterer accused by President W. P. Ward of the Trades Council of having stolen the seal of that organization, was dismissed in the Police Court this morning on motion of the Prosecuting Attorney, Abe Leach.

In making his motion for a dismissal, Leach completely vindicated the defendant of the charge, stating that he did not ask for a dismissal of the charge on the ground of insufficient evidence, but on the ground that he believed the defendant innocent.

Attorney A. L. Frick, for the defense, stated that he was sorry the case was not brought to trial, as a mere dismissal of a charge often left the clouds of suspicion resting on the name of the defendant, while a trial would completely exonerate him.

Judge Smith said the defendant had been held to be innocent by the Prosecuting Attorney, and that he would grant a dismissal of the case on the grounds stated by Leach.

A CORRECT KITCHEN.

COMPACT, CONVENIENTLY ARRANGED AND THEREFORE LABOR SAVING.

One's Head Should Save One's Heels. Many Useless Steps—The Right Relative Position of Things—A Practical Kitchen Plan.

Having designed what has proved to be a very convenient and labor saving kitchen, I am pleased to present here-with a somewhat detailed description of the same for the benefit of others, says a writer in Good Housekeeping. The dimensions are about 9 by 12 feet. There is no outside door leading directly into the kitchen, there being an ante-room between the outer and the inner door. This arrangement is designed to serve certain cardinal purposes which every housewife will appreciate. First, it obviates the embarrassing necessity of throwing your kitchen open to the gaze of the back door errand caller at inopportune moments. Second, this ante-room is a convenient place for the family refrigerator. Here it is near at hand, and yet not in the least exposed to the heat of the stove.

This arrangement also obviates the annoyance of having the ice-man track across the kitchen or into some other room at each delivery. Furthermore, it makes it entirely unnecessary for the housewife who has no help to stay about the house to receive the ice-man. The inner doors leading to the kitchen and the sitting room, respectively, can be locked so that there is access to the refrigerator only. Further, this kitchen ante-room forms a very desirable protection against storm and cold in the winter.

The kitchen faces south, with a large window midway of the length, furnishing abundance of light. Against this same wall, between the window and the ante-room, is a cupboard, 3 by 4 feet, directly over the sink. This cupboard serves as a depository for a certain classification of kitchen articles, such as tea, coffee, spices, extracts, teapot, coffee-pot, etc. On the same wall, at the other end of the kitchen, are hooks and bar, designed as hangers for miscellaneous cooking utensils. The stationary work table extends the full length of this side, exclusive of the sink provided with hot and cold water. Under this table there is a series of receptacles for crockery, kettles, pans, skillets and other kitchen tools; also a flour bin with separate pockets for the pastry flour and the flour for bread.

The entire east end wall is occupied with cupboards, divided into upper and lower sections, between which there is an extension of the stationary work table. The upper section is fitted with four shelves and the lower with two. One division of the upper section is set apart for the choice china and the other for the everyday set. One division of the lower section is the receptacle for the stock of tea towels, kitchen hand towels, aprons, etc., another for general grocery supplies, another for pie tins, bread pans, etc.

The door to the dining room swings either way with very slight touch, and the hinges are so constructed that pushing the door beyond a certain point releases the automatic action, and the door remains stationary, a very desirable feature of a swinging door.

About midway along the north wall and directly opposite the window is the position of the gas range, at convenient distance from all working points of the kitchen. Just above the range and against the wall there is ample provision made for hanging such utensils as are most frequently used in the preparation of the meals. The hot water tank is set between the range and the chimney and, being connected with the furnace, gives ample heat ration for the kitchen during the winter season. The pipe thimble for the coal range is supplied with a ventilating funnel, effectually removing steam and cooking odors from the kitchen.

From this description it will be readily seen that the plan combines the kitchen and the pantry. Experience with this kitchen has demonstrated that its compactness and the relative position of the various departments and appliances and points of attack reduce the wear and tear and drudgery of kitchen work to a minimum.

Cottage Cheese.

When making cottage cheese, instead of putting the sour milk on the fire—in this way it is often overcooked—set in a pan of boiling water, advises Want to Eat. Renew the water if necessary. After it curdles drain thoroughly and add salt, pepper, butter and cream.

When you weigh quality and price—as you will—you will wonder, as we do, how so much goodness can be made and sold for so little.

FRATERNAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Many Entertainments Are Reported From the Local Lodge Rooms.

At the regular meeting of Oakland Council No. 6, Young Men's Institute, on September 28th, at Foresters' Hall, it was unanimously decided to give an expression of the feelings of the Council touching the great calamity which so recently befell the nation. The sentiments of the Council are embodied in the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

"A country can scarcely stand in the presence of a greater danger than that arising from doctrines counselling the destruction of all authority in the land. Sincerely they pervade the social strata, they disease the public conscience; they sap the nation's life. They draw after them the weak-minded and aimless enthusiasts whose folly prompts them to try and reduce the doctrines to acts."

"Our late dearly-beloved and much-lamented President having fallen a victim to these unhappy teachings, we are forcibly reminded how urgent is the need of combating them by teaching loyalty to God and country even as it is expressed in the motto of our order."

"Oakland Council No. 6, Y. M. I., in Council assembled, shares the common grief which in the death of President McKinley has fallen upon the nation. It shares, too, in the general sympathy which has gone out from the whole world to the bereaved widow and intimate friends of the illustrious dead, and as an evidence of the feelings of the Council it is hereby ordered that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this meeting, and that the charter of the Council be draped in mourning for thirty days."

The following have been appointed deputies for the local Councils by the Grand President: Oakland Council No. 6, W. V. Harrington; American Council No. 8, W. J. Hennessey; California Council No. 24, Rev. T. J. O'Connell.

Oakland Council No. 6 announces a grand entertainment and ball to take place about the middle of November the date of which has not been definitely settled. A committee has been appointed and a preliminary report will be presented at the next meeting, Thursday evening, October 10th.

All the local Councils are having a steady increase in membership and finances.

Mission Council No. 3 of San Francisco tendered Grand President D. J. O'Leary a reception on September 28th.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Dirigo Lodge No. 224 K. P. held a regular weekly convention on Tuesday last. Castle Hall was crowded with members and visitors to witness the impressive ceremonies of conferring the Knight degree upon Esquires C. J. Heesman, H. A. Ongreth, Calvin Jeffries, F. R. Moore, W. L. Sayre, T. W. Harnett, W. J. Bossart and Frank Shipley. The Degree Team very efficiently emphasized the beautiful ritual. Eighteen new applications were received and referred to the investigation committees.

The new Uniform Rank was broached and received with great enthusiasm by the younger members. The baseball team recently organized will have its first practice game next week.

OAKLAND LODGE.

Oakland Lodge No. 103 K. P. had three applications for membership at its assembly Thursday evening last. The steady increase in its roster is most encouraging to the members of the lodge, and among those who are somewhat skeptical it seems to be a foregone conclusion that the lodge will reach the goal to which it aspires by August, 1902.

When the business of the lodge had been disposed of, Brother B. D. Gans, manager of the Oriental team of Council No. 1, took possession of the floor and drilled the team in some new and unique evolutions.

At this evening's session the page rank in a most elaborate and impressive manner will be conferred.

On Thursday the Council chamber of Grand Orient, at 521 Twelfth street, was taxed to its utmost capacity with an enthusiastic assemblage of its members and visitors from Sister Councils Pilgrims Creig, Schulties, Cleack, Maletou, Maurer and Johnson, were initiated into the sublime mysteries of Orientalism.

WOMEN OF WOODCRAFT.

Oakland Circle, No. 26, W. of W., initiated a large class of candidates at their meeting last Saturday evening, and the officers and team are to be praised for their efforts.

COFFEE FOR MOTHERS.

The Kind That Nourishes and Supplies Food for Mother and Child. "My husband has been unable to drink coffee for several years, so we were glad to give Postum Food Coffee a trial, and when we understood that by long boiling it would bring out the delicious flavor we have been highly pleased with it."

"It is one of the finest things for nursing mothers that I have ever seen. It keeps up the mother's strength and increases the supply of milk for the child if partaken of freely. I drank it between meals instead of water and found it most beneficial."

"Our 5 year old boy has been very delicate since birth and has developed slowly. He was white and bloodless. I began to give him Postum Food Coffee, and he is now a healthy, robust child. I am surprised at the change. When any person remarks about the great improvement, we never fail to tell them that we attribute his gain in strength and general health to the free use of Postum Food Coffee, and this has led many friends to use it for themselves and children."

"I have always cautioned friends to whom I have spoken about Postum to follow directions in making it, for unless it is boiled fifteen or twenty minutes it is quite tasteless. On the other hand, when properly made, it is very delicious. I want to thank you for the benefits we have derived from the use of your Postum Food Coffee." Mrs. W. W. Earnest, 727 Ninth Ave., Helena, Mont.

DEGREE OF FORECLOSURE.

In the foreclosure suit of Christopher C. Riley against Frederick P. Jones, a decree of foreclosure and sale in the sum of $100.31 has been handed down. The property is in East Oakland.

FRATERNAL NEWS OF THE WEEK.

the able manner in which the work was done.

A great many visiting neighbors were present, especially from Alameda Circle. The circle has accepted an invitation to be present at an entertainment to be given by Calista Camp, No. 8, W. of W., on Monday evening, October 7, in honor of their degree team, which won the silver ax at Fernbrook Park in a competitive drill.

The circle will give an entertainment on October 31 at Reed Hall.

FORESTERS OF AMERICA.

COURT VERBANO, NO. 185. On next Saturday night, October 5, at Foresters' Hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets, Court Verbano aided by the ladies of Verbano Circle, will give a grand ball for the benefit of the initiatory team. The committee in charge of the affair is uniting in its efforts to make the function an interesting one.

An excellent orchestra has been engaged that will render the choicest music, so that the votaries of dancing may avail themselves of the opportunity.

FRATERNAL BROTHERHOOD.

Oakland Lodge, Fraternal Brotherhood, No. 12, enjoyed a very pleasant evening last Friday. Several names were presented and two candidates were initiated. Brother E. A. S. Blake and wife were present. Brother Blake expects to take up the work here, and as he is one of the best fraternal organizers on this coast the lodge looks for great results. With the co-operation of the lodge, the membership can be doubled by January 1.

Col. Stone of San Francisco was also present and made a few remarks. After a large adjourned Sister Antioch's Smart favored the members with a recitation in her usual charming manner, after which dancing was in order and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

PRIDE OF FOREST.

Pride of the Forest Circle No. 122 C. O. F. had a fine time last Thursday at its open meeting. A large crowd attended. They had a large entertainment and grab bag. Tuesday evening, October 10th, will be their social night. Everybody is welcome.

ARGONAUT TENT.

Argonaut Tent No. 33 gave its first social and entertainment last Tuesday evening before a large audience. The following program was rendered: Selection, McElin orchestra; vocal solo by Miss Savage; violin solo by C. Worth; trombone solo by B. G. McBain; trombone duet by McBain Brothers.

Remarks were made by E. J. Gelder on the good of the order, and by Miss Hartman, deputy on organizing a new lodge in connection with Argonaut Tent.

The floor was then cleared for dancing, which was kept up until a late hour.

The committee of Arrangements was composed of W. J. Murdoch, J. Gelder, E. E. Layman and W. J. Cronin.

It is the intention of the Tent to give these entertainments and socials once a month.

The Degree Team is going to Redwood City Saturday, October 12, to initiate a class of new members; and a new Tent has just been opened.

The ball team will have two games on Sunday, October 13th. Argonaut Tent vs. Oakland Tent No. 17 at 10 a. m. and Argonaut vs. Hale Bros. at 2 p. m. on the Twenty-third avenue grounds, just back of the Cotton Mills.

MASONIC.

Brooklyn Lodge No. 225 F. and A. M., East Oakland, will confer the First Degree Tuesday evening, October 3.

SONS OF ST. GEORGE.

Albion Lodge No. 295 is making great preparations for its forthcoming "stag party." This stag was originally planned for September 24 at Gier's Hall and tickets were sold bearing that date. Owing to the lamentable death of President McKinley, the proposed festivities were postponed until Tuesday, October 22nd, at the same place. Tickets sold for September 24 will be honored on October 22.

Splendid talent has been engaged for this affair and the minstrel troupe especially promised to be one of the best ever seen or heard in Oakland.

Albion Lodge is forging ahead very fast, and the San Francisco lodges will have to look to their laurels or Albion will soon be the banner lodge for membership in the Pacific Coast jurisdiction.

Derby Lodge No. 255 of Alameda sustained a great loss in the recent deaths of Brothers Dr. Field and Coles. Brother Coles was a poet of considerable merit and a great help to the lodge in the way of a body which always in evidence at its meetings in Lindemann hall.

Derby has doubled its membership within the last few months.

BROOKLYN REBEKAHS.

Brooklyn Rebekah Lodge No. 12 met Monday evening last. The evening was very pleasantly spent. The district deputy resident paid an official visit to the lodge and installed Mrs. Seip as inside guardian in place of Camella Holmes, resigned. Visitors were present from Placerville and many nice speeches were made. After lodge closed, confederates and others, headed by Miss Jones, invited the staff members present to drill Monday, October 1th.

THE A. O. U. W.

The regular meeting of Pacific Lodge No. 7 takes place this evening at A. O. U. W. Hall, 1169 Broadway. The annual dinner of Pacific Drill Team takes place next Saturday evening.

On Tuesday evening, October 15, at Fraternity Hall, West Oakland the members of the A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor will assemble to hold memorial service in memory of the late past master, Lawrence Nolan of California Lodge No. 1.

In his lifetime Brother Nolan was one of the most active and energetic members of the order in Oakland. He represented California Lodge in the Grand Lodge as a member of years.

He held the position of district deputy for district No. 1 of Alameda.

There will be a meeting of representatives from the various lodges of Alameda county on Friday evening at A. O. U. W. hall 1169 Broadway to consider plans for properly receiving the Supreme Lodge Officers when they visit this city, which will probably be the latter part of November.

The officers of the order were conferred on candidates at Fremont Lodge last Thursday evening by Dr. French and his Oriental Team.

THE MACCABEES.

At its last regular Monday, September 28th, Oakland Tent No. 17 initiated two new members and received three applications for membership. The Tent now has 45 members.

Next Monday evening the tent will give an entertainment for members and visiting Sir Knights and the following Monday evening its doors will be open to Oakland Hive, L. O. T. M., and friends.

The seventh annual ball will be given in Reed Hall Wednesday evening, November 20th. The baseball team under the management of Sir Knight H. Scherman and Captain J. A. Rogers is doing good work and will play its second game with the team of Argonaut Tent No. 23 at the Twenty-third avenue grounds at 2 p. m., Sunday, October 13th.

COURT TRIUMPH.

Court Triumph No. 8350, Ancient Order of Foresters, will give a literary and social entertainment on the evening of October 10th at Gier's Hall. A pleasant evening is assured those who are fortunate enough to be present. Admission will be by invitation only. Court Triumph is rapidly forging ahead in good work and will make a herculean effort to obtain the banner offered by the subsidiary High Court.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

Every meeting of Oakland Lodge No. 162 is more interesting than the previous one and is a source of pleasure to its members. They are deeply interested in temperance. Initiations are the regular order, owing to the contest for credits between the opposing teams. Every second Monday evening is social night for friends of the cause. October 14th will be a basket social and ladies are invited to bring a basket with lunch for two. There will be a fine program. All are invited to attend. Admission free.

The Grand Lodge of California meets in Vallejo next week, October 5th.

We have entered the contest for the "Kingsbury" piano.

THE REBEKAHS.

Another rousing and enthusiastic meeting was held by Absit Invidia Rebekah Lodge, No. 11 L. O. F., last Tuesday evening at Elks' Hall. Many were in attendance.

The lodge has grown greatly during the past two months, and has cause to feel much elated over many features of its success. Applications and initiations have become the regular order of reviews.

A very efficient corps of officers are in the chairs of which the lodge is justly proud, and the excellent manner in which they execute their work is highly appreciated.

Two more applications for initiation are promised for the next meeting. Past Noble Grand, Sister Nellie Voorhes, one of Absit Invidia's first initiates, who wandered away from the fold, has returned, and it was with pleasure that she was again welcomed as one of its members.

The visiting committee reported Past Noble Grand Sister F. Alberta Littlefield, Sister Sinclair and Brother Jacobsen as slowly improving.

On next Tuesday evening, October 8th, the lodge will give a "Basket Social" with admission free, and a large attendance is anticipated. Invitations have been extended to all lodges this side of San Leandro, and the general public is cordially invited to be present, as a very enjoyable as well as amusing time will be had. Each lady attending will provide a basket or box with lunch for two with her name inclosed. During the evening these boxes will fall into the hands of the gentlemen of the assemblage, and a general "still hunt" for partners will be the main feature of the social, and after the "inner man" has been satisfied, dancing will conclude the evening's entertainment.

The "Home Social" Committee for the evening then took charge under the head and shoulders of the order, and a very enjoyable time was spent. Several unique features were introduced, one of which was a game entitled the "cat show." The prize was captured by Brother Lawrence Hyde. The committee then served refreshments, and the remainder of the evening was spent in a social manner generally.

While the social functions of the lodge are features which create interest, the main object is to nurse the sick, bury the dead, feed the hungry, comfort and assist the widow, and care for and defend her fatherless children, which is a grand, noble work, and we cordially invite those who are eligible, whether they are affiliated to join us and help in the good work.

Lodge night is, to a good Odd Fellow or Rebekah, a night to be looked forward to and enjoyed as a time when he will give him the privilege of a body which always in evidence at its meetings in Lindemann hall.

Odd Fellowship, while it avows no affiliation with, or objection to any religion, is the religion of duty, and anyone who follows closely the teachings of our beloved Order will find at the final reckoning, when the last debt of nature is cancelled, and he has stood before the Supreme Judge of the Universe, that having done his duty as he saw it while here on earth, he will have the right to and will receive the passport to the life beyond.

entering that grand and final degree in which no one is ever reported sick or in distress, where dues are abolished and assessments unknown.

He is always ready to extend the hand of fraternity to all visitors.

LYON CORPS.

The ladies of Lyon Corps, No. 6, W. R. C. Auxiliary to the G. A. R. will give a "Home Social" on Tuesday evening, October 8, 1901, at Irving Hall, corner of Eleventh and Clay streets, Oakland. An excellent literary and musical program will be rendered, and a special orchestra will play for the dancing. New waltzes, polkas and figures will be introduced. Refreshments will be served in the banquet hall. As the draft on the relief fund of the order has been greater than usual for several months, the ladies feel the necessity of making this social a financial success, therefore, they solicit the liberal patronage given them on former occasions.

HARBOR LODGE.

Harbor Lodge, No. 233 I. O. O. F., held a regular meeting Wednesday evening, at which there was a large attendance of members. Considerable business was transacted. The Committee on Home Site made a favorable report. The Entertainment Committee stated it would be ready to report at the next meeting. The sick members are doing nicely and improving every day.

DAILY LETTER FROM METROPOLIS

M. J. Keller, a Prominent Market

Street Merchant—Levy, the Ticket Speculator—Henry, the Bartender—Percy Beamish

and His Downs and Ups.

By F. R. P.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—I met M. J. Keller on Market street, nearly opposite the fine, large building his house is to occupy commencing next Saturday. Mr. Keller is much interested in the business prospect confronting him in this city. I have talked with a number of leading merchants here and they all agree the M. J. Keller Company will have a prosperous career in the metropolis. Mr. Keller began in a small way in Oakland over twenty years ago. Almost from the start his policy has been to advertise liberally. From a narrow store he graduated into a place double its size. He then became an up-town merchant on a big scale and finally leased a building in Oakland which is now one of the show-places of that city. As a private citizen, as a prominent tradesman and as president of the Oakland Board of Trade for many terms, Mr. Keller devoted much time, talent and cash to the work of spreading the news of Oakland's advantages. He is yet in the prime of life.

Probably the best known man about town in San Francisco is "Nibsey" Levy, the western ticket speculator. I had a chat with him near the Columbia Theater. Few people know that his initials are S. F. He is over 60 years of age, was born in the Minories, London, and used to make the vicinity of the Tower of London his playground. Daily he spends hours on the Rialto (Bowling street, between Edly and Ellis). He wears ordinarily a plug hat, a light overcoat with a pink at the label and other characteristic attire. He is an extraordinary cigar smoker. His list of acquaintances among theatrical folk is prodigious. His judgment on the drawing power of a dramatic or operatic show is regarded as infallible. The words, "A frost," from his lips are ominous of scanty receipts for the managerial exchequer. "Nibsey" was in the height of his glory as a speculator when Colonel J. H. Mapleson was the impresario at the Mission street opera house with Adelina Patti as the star. In that epoch, fifteen and twenty years ago, he would make a profit of hundreds a night.

Henry, a bartender at Wheeler & Collins' venerable resort on Montgomery street, is aged 50 years or so, but is sprightly and quite youthful in looks, despite that he first entered the service there in 1857. When hundreds of patrons, whose drinks he has mixed, have joined their ancestors since that centennial year. A colossal figure among that host of thirty ones was the polymathic, James G. Fair. And Emperor Norton was likewise a familiar visitor to that place. Henry has handled glasses whose combined number and weight would astonish the spectator. The amount of liquor that has vanished, because of his manipulation, would poise a tugboat! The energy he has expended in reaching for bottles, handling them and replacing them would total pounds enough to sink the sunken Rio de Janeiro! Henry is a philosopher. I asked him, "What is your last name?" and he replied: "Nobody cares for a bartender's last name. I am Henry, that's all."

Among the eighteen nominees for Supervisor on the Republican ticket is Percy Beamish. I had a talk with him. Mr. Beamish's destiny as a San Francisco merchant has been, lately, about as illustrated as that of Romeo as Juliet's sweetheart. In trade, in the haberdashery line in this city, for over a score of years, Mr. Beamish bade fair once to amass a grand fortune. His luckless years were when he was located in the Nucleus building, site of the Hearst-Examiner monument. Then he was a commanding influence in local political affairs, and his purse was emptied of much wealth that the Republican cause might be stronger. He moved to E. J. Baldwin Annex building and disaster leaped on him. His gilt effigy of a grizzly bear is today tenant of a section of the portal of an Oakland clothing establishment. Mr. Beamish, not dismayed, sought custom again in an unpretentious store on Montgomery street. But the "hoodoo" could not be exorcised. He has many friends and sympathizers, however, and Dame Fortune may relent and co-operate in his behalf, with them.

Says He Was Tortured.

"I suffered such pain from corns I could hardly walk," writes H. Robinson, Hillsborough, Ill. "But Bucken's America Salve completely cured them." Acts like magic on sprains, bruises, cuts, sores, scalds, burns, boils, ulcers. Perfect healer of skin diseases and piles. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Ogden Bros., Seventh and Broadway.

The 5 o'clock edition of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE may be purchased in San Francisco at that hour at 740 Market street, near Grant avenue (Cooper & Co. art stationers); at the ferry building news stands; at the Grand Hotel news stand; and at the Palace Hotel news stand.

The New Cyclery.

HOW GOV. GAGE SETTLED THE GREAT SAN FRANCISCO STRIKE.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE PLAYED THE PART OF A DIPLOMAT AND SUCCEEDED IN MAKING A SATISFACTORY SETTLEMENT ALL AROUND — COMPLIMENTED FOR THE GOOD WORK HE HAS ACCOMPLISHED.

The strike of the teamsters and the Water Front Federation of San Francisco, the greatest ever known in the history of the Pacific Coast was declared yesterday by Governor Gage.

Today, thousands of men, who for nine weeks have been torn with anxiety over the result of the great struggle, who have been exhausting their own financial resources and the liberality of their friends in hoping for the war to cease, have resumed their places in their former avocations and hereafter there will be peace, comfort and plenty in every home.

Enter, vindictive feeling has given way to confidence and diplomacy and Governor Gage has in this connection proven himself to be a diplomat without a peer among all who have attempted to bring the warring strike to a close.

With no loud, rhetorical proclamation of his purpose, he set about to redeem the people, the State and the coast from the undermining influences of the strike, and he has accomplished his purpose with a skill which is none the less to be appreciated because of the modesty with which it has been proclaimed.

In making the announcement which brought joy to every heart, Governor Gage speaks as follows:

GOVERNOR'S STATEMENT.

HAVING been invited by those most vitally interested in the labor difficulties to try to find some solution by which normal conditions of commerce and peace and prosperity of the community could be resumed, I took hold of the question, and it now gives me great pleasure to state, after carefully maturing all the points in the controversy, that I presented my views to both the Draymen's Association of San Francisco and the Brotherhood of Teamsters and Water Front Federation, and, after full discussion terms and conditions were arrived at acceptable to both, and that I am authorized by the officers of both contending parties to declare the teamsters' strike and all collateral and sympathetic strikes or lockouts originating from the teamsters' strike at an end, which I hereby do.

"San Francisco, October 2, 1901.

"HENRY T. GAGE, Governor."

The story is told in a single sentence. That sentence is a "push-button" which has imparted activity in a hundred lines of business and sent a thrill through reviving industry in all parts of the coast.

TERMS OF AGREEMENT.

The terms of peace submitted to the executive committee of the Draymen's Association by the strike leaders, through the mediation of Governor Gage, and accepted by the committee, and afterwards ratified by the Draymen's Association in regular meeting, and by the City Front Federation and the Brotherhood of Teamsters, are substantially as follows:

The Draymen's Association through its executive committee, guarantees that the wages, hours and overtime schedule in force before the inception of the strike shall not be disturbed.

The City Front Federation and the Brotherhood of Teamsters agree that the teamsters' strike and the sympathetic general strike shall be declared off and the men left free to return to work. Employees are to obey orders given by the employer in the regular course of business.

AFFECTING ORGANIZED LABOR.

The following shows how the strike and its settlement are viewed by the representatives of organized labor:

"Regarding the settlement of the strike the executive committee of the Labor Council last night issued the following: The Governor of California has declared the strike of the transportation workers and collateral and sympathetic strikes with them off. Nothing need be added to that, except that Governor Gage always quotes his authorities correctly, always knows what he is doing. Let us all be glad and thankful that these days of trial and tribulation are past. Let us also understand, however, that the beautiful state of the millennium has not arrived; that there will be in this great work of mediator with but a single thought in his mind—the desire to bring about harmony in the State and a resumption of proper and friendly relations between the men and their employers. If, in the hour of his success, he shall incidentally receive an unlooked-for reward in increased popularity, increased strength with the people and a generally better understanding of his character, 'The Examiner' will not grudge him these things because he is a political opponent, but does most heartily congratulate him."

"Now that the industrial war is at an end, we hope for an era of better feeling than has existed in California for some time past. We hope to see the lines that have been drawn between capital and labor, between wealth and poverty, between shrewdness and the lack of it, softened, if not entirely obliterated."

"We know that the employers have learned to respect the patient endurance and heroic self-abnegation of the teamsters and their friends. We know that the unions have learned the importance of avoiding pin-prick annoyances which, in the past, have done so much to engender bitterness. We know that the merchants of San Francisco have a better appreciation of the staying qualities of the men than they should have. This is as it should be. Strong men don't lightly grapple with each other."

"We congratulate San Francisco that at last the police force will be engaged in the protection of all the citizens and not improperly devoted to a futile purpose. We congratulate San Francisco that this controversy has shown all the people the unfitness of many of the men in whose hands has been imposed the public trust of public offices. We congratulate the leaders of the workmen for the forbearance, good temper and good manners they have shown throughout the controversy. And right here we wish to say that no finer illustration of the value of unions was ever shown than in the conduct of this strike. Twenty odd years ago when the dissatisfied workmen of San Francisco thronged the sand lots to listen to the ravings of a blatherskite they mistook for a friend, there was nothing to repress hoodlumism and riot, and San Francisco was ablaze with incendiarism, terrified by the tramp of lawless men. At this time, however, the unions have been in a position to hold their men in check. By opening a union restaurant, providing lodgings and using their halls as gathering places, they have been able to exercise a control over such of the men as were belligerently inclined that could not have been enforced in any other way."

"We are glad to be able to say that the settlement was brought about by arbitration. From the start of the conflict the Examiner has taken the position that there was nothing that could not be arbitrated. From the first we have suggested the employment of a disinterested mediator whose calm, unbiased judgment would rectify the conflicting interests. Governor Gage has acted as arbitrator. He has, though not appointed in a formal fashion, heard from both sides, and has reconciled such differences as existed. By learning what both sides were willing to concede, he has been able to produce a basis of settlement satisfactory to both. No doubt his task has been a difficult one. From our knowledge of the situation we realize that he must have done a tremendous amount of work, used unlimited tact and exercised the greatest care and patience. But he has succeeded in bringing the contending forces together. He has secured peace on terms alike satisfactory and honorable, and that he has been able to do that in the face of flings and taunts and unjustifiable criticism speaks volumes for his courage, sympathy and honesty of purpose. We are glad that the strike is settled. We are glad that the arbitration of Governor Gage was the means of settling it. We are confident that the trouble will stay settled, and we are sure that the universal animadversion of the community will fall upon any one that attempts to reopen the sore. Some of the wounds that have been made may take a long time to heal, but we don't envy the wretch that tries to tear off the bandages while the healing is going on."

"THE MACHINISTS. There is but one regret at this time, and that is occasioned by the fact that the machinists and their employers have not yet come to terms, but it is not at all improbable that they also may be soon enrolled in the great industrial army whose efforts, henceforth, will be directed toward making California a golden State in fact as well as in name."

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—Charges of improper conduct have been preferred against W. A. Atherton, principal of the local commercial school, by Miss Gertrude M. Earle, teacher of shorthand and typewriting in the same school. Miss Earle will probably resign from the department and Atherton will take the same course. Action will be taken on the matter by the school trustees at a special meeting to be held tonight, when the resignation of Atherton will be demanded.

Atherton is charged by Miss Earle with having written improper letters to her and to have conducted himself otherwise with impropriety. The accused principal is married and is the father of two small children. He is president of the Republican Club and has been prominent in Berkeley politics.

Miss Earle was formerly a pupil in the Commercial School and upon her graduation Atherton secured a teachers' position for her.

It was then, so the story goes, that Atherton began to pay marked attention to her.

Miss Earle has made a complete exposure of the affair, and says she will conceal nothing. "There has been trouble between Mr. Atherton and myself for some time," says Miss Earle, "but I thought it would blow over. I have received letters from him but cannot at this time tell you the contents of them. When the time comes I will make a statement and it will make people open their eyes. Nothing will be kept back the more I tell. Everything will be made public. Mr. Atherton has certainly not acted as a married man should and when I make a public statement I will prove what I say."

Principal Atherton has made the following statement concerning the trouble:

"I have nothing to say against a woman. In all matters of controversy that are sufficient to interest a community that community may be trusted to get at the truth sooner or later. If there be on the one side iniquity, deception and malice, and on the other open action, clearness of purpose and truth, those facts will constitute the record. Indiscretion may exist between man and woman under many conditions. It does not follow that the basis of indiscretion is in any respect unclear. In the present instance I plead guilty to a healthy indiscretion. It is positively not my fault that said indiscretion has become a matter of comment or of news."

TOLD TO LEAVE SCHOOL.

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—When the typewriting and shorthand classes convened at the Berkeley Public Commercial College this morning, Superintendent Waterman declared the position held by the teacher, Miss Gertrude M. Earle to be vacant. That department of the school was closed down and the scandal which has unpleasantly linked together the names of Principal W. A. Atherton and Miss Earle was heightened.

Final action will be taken upon the cases of the teachers, which has set the tongues of the gossips wagging, at a special meeting of the Board of Education tonight. At that time the resignation of Principal Atherton, which has already been handed in, will be accepted.

Miss Earle, who is a petite miss of 19 years, shows a disposition to contest her position.

LARGE FIRE AT BERKELEY.

George C. Pape's Sheds Are Destroyed and the Loss Will Be $4,000.

BERKELEY, Oct. 3.—A lively blaze, which started just before 6 o'clock this morning, destroyed sheds adjoining the planing mill of George C. Pape, entailing a loss of $4,000 and damage to adjoining structures of $1,000. The blaze started in the northeast corner of the planing mill premises, which are situated on the corner of Addison and Milvia streets.

The starting of the fire, which Mr. Pape believes was purposely set, was followed by a big explosion of paints and oils which were stored in the destroyed shed. The shed which was 22x127 feet in dimensions, contained considerable lumber, 4,000 cross arms which were to have been delivered today to the Sunset Telegraph and Telephone and Bay Counties Power Companies.

An ice house belonging to W. C. Mason and a barn owned by John Doyle were badly scorched, as was the main mill building owned by Mr. Pape.

BOULEVARD AROUND LAKE ENDANGERED BY RAINS.

The attention of Street Superintendent Ott has been directed to the condition of the boulevard on the eastern side of Lake Merritt. The rock has been broken away in several places, leaving the wall in a condition to become easy prey to the winter rains. As the ground adjoining the wall is made land, the water if given any headway would rapidly undermine the sidewalks which hem the eastern edge of the lakes.

Out steps he will take steps to have the matter remedied at the next meeting of the Board of Public Works.

Rev. W. W. Case will lecture at the Eighth Avenue M. E. Church tomorrow evening on the subject, "Over the Sea and What I Saw."

TOMATO CROP IS IN DANGER.

Farmers at San Leandro Are Worried Over the Weather Conditions.

SAN LEANDRO, Oct. 3.—If the rain continues to fall for several more days as it has for the past two, the effect on the tomato crop will be disastrous, and a great deal of money lost. Several large contracts have been made which up to date are only partly filled. These will be lost and some one will lose as a consequence.

The first small shower did not damage the crop to any great extent as a heavy wind came up and had the effect of getting most of the water off the tomatoes before any damage was done, but the continued showers will crack and soften the vegetables until they are not fit for canning purposes, for which the ones from this district are used mostly.

Much anxiety is being felt by the large growers in this place, and it is hoped that the weather will change in favor of the tomatoes. The loss of the present crop would be felt here much more than in other places, as the district about here supplies more tomatoes than any other part of the county.

Margaretta McIntosh and Mrs. Catherine Schubert, sister and widow respectively of John P. Schubert, deceased, are fighting over the amount of a life insurance policy of the deceased which was issued by the Bankers' Life Insurance Association. The money involved is $2,500. Some time after Schubert's death his widow, who at the time of his death was suing him for divorce, brought suit to secure the face value of the policy. PLEASANT PARTY AT HAYWARDS.

Committee Carried Out the Program in a Successful Manner.

HAYWARDS, Oct. 2.—On Tuesday night of this week the "hearts" party given by the Degree of Honor took place. The party was one of the most successful and interesting affairs of the season and was largely attended.

The different committees that had control of the party carried out every detail to perfection and as a result the program was carried out without a hitch. Many handsome prizes were divided among the players, of which there were about fifty. A great many spectators were present and all enjoyed watching a most exciting and interesting contest. Every one is pleased over the grand success of the party and the ladies are to be congratulated for having afforded so much amusement.

HAYWARDS HUNTERS HAD VERY POOR LUCK.

HAYWARDS, Oct. 3.—The ten members of the Haywards Gun Club who went to their preserves the other day with large expectations returned to this place with a bunch of sorry-looking ducks, the combined shoot of the party. When they left in the morning headed by Chief Obermuller they promised their friends that they would return with 500 ducks, which is the limit set by law for a crowd of ten to kill in one day. Something must have been wrong with the ducks, because it is well known that all the members are first class shots.
